

Brenninkmeijer-Werhahn Fellowship for Graduate Studies at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem

In the context of the ongoing exchange program between the Hebrew University of Jerusalem through its Center for the Study of Christianity, and the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome through its Cardinal Bea Centre for Judaic Studies, we are pleased to announce a fellowship for visiting graduate students at the Hebrew University for the academic year 2022-2023.

The student is expected to follow a course of study at the Hebrew University, during either the autumn semester (October 23, 2022 - January 27, 2023) or the spring semester (March 12, 2023 - June 30, 2023).

The student will be enrolled in the Division of Graduate Studies of the Rothberg International School in conjunction with the Center for the Study of Christianity and the Department of Comparative Religion of the Faculty of the Humanities. The successful candidate will be free to construct an individual program of study comprising both coursework and independent graduate research. The academic context promises contact with a diverse student body, composed of both Israeli and international students from a variety of national and religious backgrounds.

The fellowship offers a waiver of tuition and a living stipend of EUR 5,600 after applying and filling all the necessary paper work in <http://overseas.huji.ac.il/appinfo> (Rothberg International School website). Moreover, the student will be given access to both library and computing services.

Online registration deadlines: Autumn semester May 10, 2022; spring semester December 31, 2022.

Applicants are requested to submit the following documents:

- a. A Curriculum vitae, giving details of education and language skills and any information the applicant considers relevant
- b. Transcripts of undergraduate and graduate studies
- c. A letter of reference
- d. A statement describing the studies to be undertaken during the term of the fellowship
- e. Contact information: [1] Postal Address; [2] Phone number(s); [3] E-mail address

After initial review, applications will be forwarded to the academic committee of the Center for the Study of Christianity of the Hebrew University for final decision.

Deadline for applications is April 26, 2022. A decision will be announced by May 5, 2022.
